Cornerstone Records Management Announces Acquisition of Rochester Data Storage Center

Columbia, MD – August 12, 2010 – Cornerstone Records Management, LLC announced today that it has completed the acquisition of the assets of Rochester, NY, based Rochester Data Storage Center, Inc.

“With a significant presence in the Rochester market and additional customers across the greater Upstate New York area, Rochester Data represents a great fit with our existing presence in the state of New York,” said Steven Sisney, President and CEO of Cornerstone. “Rochester Data offers a full suite of record and information management services including the storage of hard copy records, both mobile and plant based shredding services, as well as providing electronic media vaulting”.

“Customers of Rochester Data will be able to benefit from enhanced customer service due to our larger footprint, and they will have access to a broader array of product offerings,” explained Sisney. “We will be able to provide these customers full solutions to their records and information management needs in a flexible and responsive manner.” Rochester Data will become part of Cornerstone’s Eastern Division which is headquartered in King of Prussia, PA.

The acquisition of Rochester Data represents the eighth acquisition completed by Cornerstone since June 2008, and reflects Cornerstone’s philosophy of growing both organically and through acquisition.

Cornerstone is continuing to focus on rapidly growing its business in the Southern California, Denver, Northeast and Mid-Atlantic markets.
